MESSAGE

Dear Pat,

-I-

You have sent to me a form 905 on 23 may 1997.

It was returned with the mention: "N'habite pas à l'adresse indiquée".

I have sent to you a fax on 27 june 1997 with my name VERNONIS. It was impossible to associate this fax to the application 08/809,620 because the inventor had been incorrectly named GOULVEN by USPTO, when VERNONIS twice appears on form "VERIFIED STATEMENT CLAIMING SMALL ENTITY STATUS".

If the inventor had been correctly named, my fax on 27 june 1997 should been associated to the application 08/809 620 and your fax of the form 905 should been sent immediately.

The delay should been then within 2 months and the fee $ 206.

This amount can be deducted of the $ 448 in excess, as that appears on form PTO 1390 (19 march 1997).

Is it not ?

-II-

Can you send to me a photocopy of the envelope returned with mention "N'habite pas à l'adresse indiquée" ?

It is very important to protest against french postal service.
